DATELINE NBC

FRIDAY, OCT. 2 - The kidnapping and the rescue of Jaycee Dugard, 18 years after the crime, stunned the nation this past summer leaving many to ask why wasn't the alleged kidnapper caught sooner and how could there have been so many missed opportunities. Now, "Dateline" investigates and brings viewers up to date on the latest developments on the case. Keith Morrison reports.

FRIDAY, OCT. 9 - THRU THE POURING RAIN Thirteen years and thirteen attacks later, the man who comes out from the bushes only on rainy nights has finally been caught. Keith Morrison has the story of a man in Tennessee that was accused of raping 13 victims ranging from pregnant women to grandmothers. Morrison speaks with some of the victims who were courageous enough to hide the criminal's DNA—with one victim even biting a piece of the rapists' hands and hiding the skin. All the DNA pointed to this one man: Robert Jason Burdick. But the Nashville bachelor had a great reputation, known for being smooth with the ladies and popular with the guys. In his short 3-day trial, Burdick's defense tried to manipulate the science—with no luck. With many questions still unanswered, the Wooded Rapist was sentenced to 32 years in prison. (Location: Nashville, Tennessee)

FRIDAY, OCT. 16 - "SECRETS OF THE LOST SYMBOL" IN A RARE AND EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH MATT LAUER, DAN BROWN TALKS ABOUT HIS LATEST BOOK, THE POWER OF THE HUMAN MIND AND WHAT HE THINKS THIS COUNTRY SHOULD KNOW ABOUT ITS FOUNDING FATHERS - One of the world's most popular authors, Dan Brown, sits down for a rare and exclusive interview with NBC News' Matt Lauer to talk about his new book, The Lost Symbol, the beliefs of the Freemasons, the power of the human mind, whether people can become gods and a little known science that may tie them all together. For the hour-long report, "Secrets of the Lost Symbol," set to air on Friday, Oct. 16 (9:00 PM/ET), Lauer travels to Washington D.C. to interview Brown and explore the backdrop and secrets of this new bestseller. "Secrets of the Lost Symbol" will take viewers behind the scenes of the secretive brotherhood of the Freemasons in attempt to make sense of what is fact and what's fiction for all Brown's fans, and find out from the Freemasons themselves what he got right, and what he got wrong. The broadcast also goes in search of what Brown calls the true meaning of his book and why, he says, it's so unlike his others. Additionally, he speaks with Lauer at length about the beliefs of the nation's founding fathers, saying "America wasn't founded a Christian country. It became a Christian country."

FRIDAY, OCT. 23 - Detectives play the role of "Cagney and Lacey" in a cold-case murder where the key evidence is a burned-down cigarette. But the real "closer" in this 20-year-old case is the victim herself, from beyond the grave. Keith Morrison reports.

FRIDAY, OCT. 30 - Police launch a race-against-the-clock mission to save two lives after tragedy strikes a happy family on a summer outing and an old friend of the grieving husband suspects the tragedy was no accident. Keith Morrison reports.

FRIDAY, NOV. 20 - THE NIGHT MARY JANE DISAPPEARED-A young mother disappeared and no one knew what had happened to her, except her three year old child. SHE saw, and remembered, every horrific detail of her mother's murder. But investigators would not listen to a toddler's testimony, and the case remained a mystery. Would police ever pay attention? Rob Stafford reports.

THURSDAY, NOV. 26 - NBC'S PEOPLE OF THE YEAR -From celebrities to survivors, politicians to pop stars, Matt Lauer profiles some of the most talked about people of 2009. Included in this special will be new interviews with: Taylor Swift, Nadya Suleman, Susan Boyle, Kobe Bryant, Captain Chelsey Sullenberger and Captain Richard Phillips.

FRIDAY, DEC. 4 - As the case goes to the jury, Dennis Murphy reports on the latest developments in the trial of Amanda Knox, the American college student charged with the brutal murder of her British roommate in Italy.

FRIDAY, DEC. 11 - THE SECRET LIFE OF TIGER WOODS -Josh Mankiewicz takes a closer look behind the headlines...what does this all mean for the most famous athlete in the world? And, what does it say about the world that one man's private life has come under so much public scrutiny? PLUS, the first primetime interview with one of Tiger's alleged mistress, Jaime Junger, and a Vegas insider who claims she know what led to the downfall.

FRIDAY, DEC. 18 - A beloved school headmaster and her husband go diving in the beautiful blue waters of the Caribbean but only one of them comes up alive. What happened so far beneath the sea? An accident or a cold-blooded killing? Dennis Murphy reports.
